Week 5: Asynchronous Learning

Week 6: Asynchronous Learning

Overview of Module 3

In Module 3, we will delve into critical aspects of nursing knowledge by exploring "Ways of Knowing" and engaging in a concept analysis. These scholarly exercises will enhance your understanding of nursing as both a science and an art, enriching your practice and scholarship.

Week 4: Live Session

Date & Time

When: Week 3, 6/18/24, 6:00 PM - 8:50 PM

Where: Zoom link

During our live session, we will:

- Discuss Ways of Knowing in Nursing
 - Explore the different ways nurses acquire and apply knowledge.
 - Discuss the significance of these ways in clinical practice and research.
- Introduction to Concept Analysis:
 - Define what a concept analysis is and its importance in nursing.
 - Walk through the steps of conducting a concept analysis.

This session will provide you with a comprehensive understanding of these topics, setting a solid foundation for the upcoming assignments.

Week 5: Discussion Board 3 on Ways of Knowing

In Week 4, you will participate in Discussion Board 3, focusing on "Ways of Knowing." Here's what you need to do:

Complete your initial post by Tuesday, 6/25/24 by 11:59 PM

Respond to at least one of your peers' posts by Friday 6/28/24 by 11:59pm

Week 6: Discussion Board 4 on a Concept Analysis

Discussion Board 4 will be comprehensive and essential for your concept analysis paper due next Saturday. To succeed, start working on this immediately after our Week 3 session. Here's what you need to know:

Review Detailed Instructions:

Go to the Discussion Board 4 area and download the Word document with detailed instructions.

Plan Your Time:

- Review the instructions thoroughly to understand the scope and requirements.
- Allocate sufficient time each week to work on your concept analysis.

Complete your initial post by Tuesday, 7/2/24 by 11:59 PM

Respond to at least one of your peers' posts by Friday 7/5/24 by 11:59pm

Concept Analysis Paper: Your work on Discussion Board 4 will set you up for the final concept analysis paper due next Saturday, 7/13/24. Engaging in discussion and utilizing the feedback you receive to enhance your paper is crucial. Again, this assignment will require substantial effort, so please plan accordingly.

✓ Objectives

1. Analyze the various modes of understanding and knowledge acquisition within the nursing discipline.
2. Explore a phenomenon of interest through ways/patterns of knowing.
3. Understand the significance of nursing phenomena and their implications for identifying areas requiring intervention and transformation.
4. Identify a nursing phenomenon of interest reflecting on personal and professional experiences and expertise.
5. Evaluate a nursing concept through a structured method of analysis to investigate an identified phenomenon of interest.
