

S.I.G.N.A.L. Assessment

(Student Insight for Growth and New Approaches to Learning)

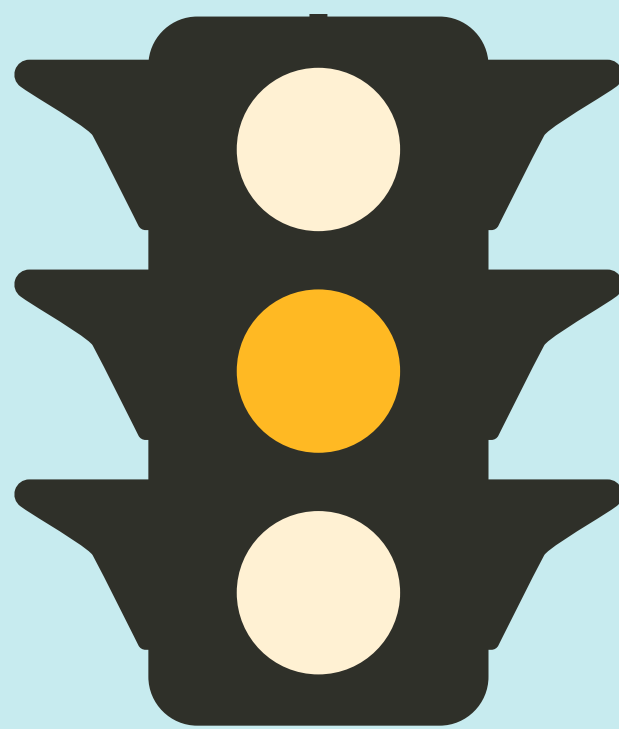

Purpose: This anonymous assessment helps to gather feedback on the course and its delivery, allowing for early adjustments to enhance the learning experience.

Instructions: Please take a few moments to reflect on the course so far and provide your feedback by categorizing your responses into three areas: what is working well (green), what you are unsure about (yellow), and what needs immediate attention (red). Your honest feedback is valuable for improving the course. Feel free to consider the following points in the box, but you are welcome to include any additional information you wish to communicate.

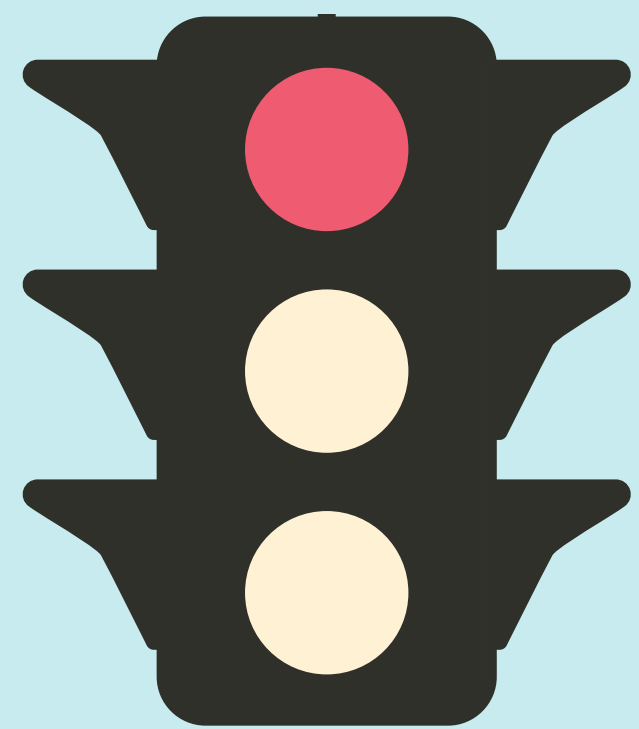

GO

What is working well?

CAUTION

What aren't we sure about yet?

STOP

What needs immediate attention?

Instructional Methods: Which aspects of the teaching methods are most effective for you?

Classroom Environment: What elements of the classroom environment contribute positively to your learning experience?

Resources and Support: What resources and support (e.g., textbooks, online materials, office hours) helpful?

Clarity of Expectations: Are there any aspects of the course or assignments that are unclear or require further explanation?

Engagement Strategies: Are there any strategies used so far that you're unsure about or feel could be improved?

Pace of the Course: Is the pace of the course too fast, too slow, or just right? Are there any areas where you feel uncertain?

Additional Resources: Are there any additional resources or support that you think might be beneficial?

Issues with Instruction: Are there any aspects of the teaching or course structure that are problematic or confusing?

Content Gaps: Are there any critical topics or areas that you feel are missing or need immediate inclusion?

Technical Problems: Are there any technical issues with course materials or online platforms that need to be addressed?

Other Concerns: Are there any other concerns or challenges that you are facing that need immediate attention?